CCCWE Canada

Welcome!

Dear CCMC delegates,

With a thankful heart, I would like to welcome everyone for participating in the Cross-Cultural Mission Consultation (CCMC) 跨文化宣教策進會議 here in Toronto!

Over the years, CCCOWE has been advocating Discipleship Driven Cross-Cultural Mission as one of the key objectives for the Chinese churches. Since the Chinese churches are comparatively so well established in Canada, what are we going to achieve for such a time as this (Est 4:13)? With reference to Psalms 67, Dr. Craig Ott, serving as the Chair of the Mission and Evangelism Department at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, rightly commented, “The election of God's people was never intended as an end in itself, but rather that they might become a blessing to the nations.” Following biblical teachings, the Chinese, being richly blessed by God, should move on to bless others also.

Back in September 2018, I thank God for granting us a CCMC task force to spearhead this vision. At the outset, using SWOT analysis, the task force evaluated the strengths & weaknesses, and the threats & opportunities facing the Canadian Chinese churches in terms of cross-cultural mission. And we prayed to put into inception the theme for CCMC as GLOCAL 天涯 · 毗鄰, meaning to advance missions from both global and local perspectives. May God bestow upon us the courage and wisdom to implement the Great Commission with resources at hand!

A special appreciation to the Toronto Christian Community Church for allowing CCCOWE Canada to use their facilities throughout this consultation. Also, I would like to thank all the volunteers serving faithfully from behind to make this event possible.

Looking forward to having a great time of understanding and strategizing together!

In Christ we serve,

Psalms 67:1-7

How Israel's prayer was changed

Comparing Psalms 67 to Numbers 6:24-26,

1. From Israel to the Nations
2. From self-preservation to mutual blessing
3. From our salvation to the worship of God

How we need to change

1. We must remember our identity and mission as God's people

But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, so that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. 1 Peter 2:9

2. We need to live for the Kingdom, not for ourselves.
3. We need to be taught and challenged to live cross-culturally.

Rev. William Leung 梁偉材牧師

Rev. William Leung was born and raised in Hong Kong, moved to Canada in 1975. A year later he gave his life to Christ and responded for full-time calling in 1984. His first pastoral ministry was at the Edmonton Christian Community Church. The family relocated back to Hong Kong in 2001 to become the Missions Pastor of the Kowloon Tong Alliance Church.

His pastoral leadership help transformed the denominational Mission Department into an International organization called the Alliance Global Serve (AGS) with a focus on cross-cultural missions. Subsequently, he had served as the General Secretary there, help developed cross-cultural ministries in 9 different countries and started up two legal AGS entities in Canada and Cambodia. During the same period of time, he had also served as Board member in different mission organizations in Hong Kong, including WEC, Wycliffe, Hong Kong Association of Christian Mission, as well as in the HK Board of CCCOWE. AGS has appointed him as their International Advisor when he returned to Canada in June 2016. In 2018, AGS Canada appointed him to be the Interim Executive Director, mobilizing Chinese churches to engage in local cross-cultural outreach. He is married to Sharon, and has one daughter.

Canada has been a land of immigration for the last 150 years. According to Statistics Canada, more than 17 million immigrants have come to Canada since Confederation in 1867.¹ The 2016 Census shows that Canadian citizens, immigrants, and non-immigrant residents came from 247 countries² with 254 ethnic origins³, bringing with them different ways of life, ideas, skills, foods, heritages, religions, values, worldviews, and mother tongues. Canada is, indeed, a country of multiethnicity, or can even be described as a country of “super-diversity”.⁴

A casual look at Figure 2 reveals that people groups associated with eight of the language groups are used to be classified as unreached people groups, meaning, less than two percent of the population is evangelical Christian.⁵ The language groups are Punjabi, Arabic, Urdu, Persian, Vietnamese, Tamil, Hindi, and Gujarati.

The traditional understanding of the “go and make disciples of all nations” in Matthew 28:19 is to send missionaries abroad, crossing national and cultural boundaries, to evangelize different people groups. This classical understanding of the Great Commission still prevails among Chinese congregations in Canada and somewhat reflected in their mission policy and mission budgets. With Canada home to such super-diverse diaspora groups, Chinese-Canadian churches can consider carry out the Great Commission among the different diaspora communities within Canada.

The presentation will go over the results of a survey and interviews done among the Chinese churches across Canada in February and March of this year. The survey covered the current involvement of the Chinese churches in terms of cross-cultural missions abroad and within Canada. The interviews probed into factors that are prohibiting the Chinese churches from engaging in cross-cultural missions within Canada.

The presenter wishes that by analysing these data critically together would sparks greater burden among the Chinese churches across Canada to engage in cross-cultural ministry and bring our Nation from sea to sea to sea to Christ!
